

Déjà-Vu and the Sins of Science

Tears For Fears

Deja vu

Deja vu

I must learn to protect myself

I'm not a man of violence

I must learn to protect myself

From the sins of science

People came and broke the law

Broke the vows of silence

I must learn to protect myself

From the sins of science

Deja vu

Deja vu

I must learn to protect myself

I'm not a man of violence

I must learn to protect myself

From the sins of science

People came and broke the law

Broke the vows of silence

I must learn to protect myself

From the sins of science
