You nigga's been having it easy for the past 6 years
Don't believe me motherfucker? Wait till I release my CD
I'm a Cold Piece of Work
They tryna find a cure for me but I'm pure disease
I'm infecting the industry first, ain't nobody safe from me
Bitch I'm great
I'm not the plug but I got that work bitch, don't try to test me
I got verses that could put everybody in a hearse so I feel I deserve it
I'm only 19 but be warned
My flow so dope a motherfucking fiend would avoid
Heard about this shit on the street giving niggas instant OD's
Oh lord
So you just caught a glimpse and you low-key high as a bitch
Don't trip, I'ma try to fix this shit
If I go too hard, you might just flip your shit
So take a few deep breaths while I inject infectious rhythm in your system
Have you bouncing through the roof, catch a groove if you with it
Aye
Asking me if I think I'm the goat
Okay I admit it, I see the future and that's all that is in it
I put in the work, so I know I'ma get it
You digging a ditch for yourself if you step to the kid, give a fuck about wealth
Give a fuck about numbers, a fuck about y'all, I will eat you alive and that
's straight from the heart
And a rock in a hard place, help me get it ever?
Broke as a bitch and I need that cheddar
Mozzarella and the provolone et-cetera
I don't really know which one is better of the three
And I don't give a fuck just hand it over
I ain't ever going back to my day job
When I quit, man, I quit for a lifetime
Called my old managers over tell him, "Man I told ya
I'm worth more than gold and I know that shit
Tryna put me on a payroll, hold my dick
I'm doing what most of the world fears everyday
That's a Cold Piece of Work, better fix your face when you're mentioning Jay

If you ain't ever heard of Coolie, you bout to get the connection
I'm narcotic, pharmaceutical, potent anti-depressant
I alleviate what antidotes heal and aging what's stressing
I'm like Lucy in the sky with the diamonds my effervescence is infectious
Most definitely, deathly defiant
I'm a motherfucking giant, a tyrant, a modern pirate
I might throw a fucking party next Friday, you're all invited
Mr. Molly said he might be attending, bitch get excited!
Lace boots with the rhyme skills
I don't even need the lights on
So Dope that I'm like pills

Burna cut the fucking mic on Coolie Baby, I been rocking with the nigga, hella tatted with the ice on Gold teeth with the gold chains, Own Thang, got the hood, I'm home
Put the swank on a nigga real quick, you are at the bottom of the sea-saw
Bank on a nigga being mine, goin' back and forth like it's ping-pong
Stay with me get you realigned, this'll be divine, it's a theme song
Godzilla be up on the punishment and I might slap the shit up out of King Kong
See the team strong, I been chopping and talking with Nina, he told me I'm ready
Aim at the target, the scope on the lock on this bitch and I'm holding it steady
Taking precaution I'm deadly
Bumping that good Everready
Shit is so down, it's steady
