

Fuck'em Girl

Tech N9ne

Its Friday night, just got paid, she's lookin' for a little bit of action, captain to get saved.

So you go straight to the mall and call your girlfriend up tell her you bought a fuck'em girl dress nuttin' less-more-than-a thinner-sinner-Chris Dior fitter.

You gotcha hair did or that there wig. Sho a fitter gotcha own sitter for that there kid.
She's goin' out to find a thick stout to out her dig, that dress' fittin' catcher's mitten is out there big.

Your manicured and pedicured up and lookin' like you wanna, your man's hittin' your phone up say fuck'em if you wanna. Lip gloss is on her blow that mirror a kiss, and if your man gotcha stressin' put on your dress and don't listen and sing.

I can't wait til I get there, step in the club lookin' playa playa. Grab your keys and beat it to the spot where you guess you'll find you a nigga buyin' a two for one special, exceptional sexual healin' is what your cravin' your pagin' you but fuck how he's feelin'

Fuck'em girl, fuck'em It's your time to get out
No time for thinkin' of'em

Now this is a story, all about how these chicks get tricked and don't know how, so I'd like to take a second and explain to them, how all this craziness evolves out of relationships, listen...

He never used to hit ya, he always used to treat ya, with some respect and dignity, and now he wanna beat ya, six months done passed and he's changed, you never woulda thought he'd be crazy and deranged, huh

Just the way he approached was so sweet, he let you know you was far away from a (late night creep), mister telephone man when he what'nt with ya, Bobby brown and Whitney, you found you a new edition, and

In the beginning it was grinings from the sit down, till he let you know that it was all on a bitch now, when, after you had you a baby, he wanna start, arguing his excuse to start sipping the Remy Martin, darkening this relationship

Now every lady grab yo bics if you relate to this, you need ta, get up out those drawls and put on some lip gloss, throw on a thong, now make your way to the closet and
