

Message To The Black Man

Tech N9ne

This song is very close and dear to my heart, man
To be able to say something like this
It takes a hella motherfucker to say it
This song is dedicated to all my people
Its called "Message To The Black Man"
Check it out

My people you supposed to be
My poeple ain't cha
But my people ain't something that I see
'cause they not never you at my shows
We've been all over the globe
Ya we been makin the doe
But cha all spending it
My people you supposed to be
My poeple ain't cha
But my people ain't something that I see
'cause they not never you up on my records
If you at my shows
Y'all don't no I'm about to become boss and
Take control

It started on the slave shift
If field niggas would eventually take the day shift
Would house niggas inside loyalty may shift
And identify us now we still need a race lift
Fuck a face lift I ain't changing my identity
For energy for any that's obsenity
Now in 2000 and 7 we sippin ain't no remedy
Jealousy indian murder like you in kinamy
Guess we ain't nigga we go hard in the paint nigga
Still when you see me out you ain't the one who faint nigga
Its the other fans from the other lands
They listen to me more then my sister and brother man
I could see if I was a wack mother fucker
Bitching about the way my people act mother fucker
But I do spit my people don't be so fuck'n reclusive
Get off of your lazy ass like you know something about music

My people you supposed to be
My poeple ain't cha
But my people ain't something that I see
'cause they not never you at my shows
We've been all over the globe
Ya we been makin the doe
But cha all spending it
My people you supposed to be
My poeple ain't cha
But my people ain't something that I see
'cause they not never you up on my records
If you at my shows
Y'all don't no I'm about to become boss and
Take control
