

Painkiller

Ted Nugent

I don't believe a word, what they say
It's only been a short time, for the ninety days
You couldn't believe me babe, you couldn't walk
That's too much craziness, that's too much talk
I gave you all my love, I gave you all of my time
Now I wake up to the cold, cold sweat, losing my mind

I don't really care what the future holds
And I don't really care if your blood runs cold

I need Painkiller
Painkiller

I feel the silence, creeping up on me
I see those thunder clouds by night called secrecy
Yeah, comes another cold, cold night, closing all around
Like a cornered animal, I've got to cover ground

It was bitter agony, that night you ran away
Now I've found some medicine, she takes my pain away

She's my Painkiller
She's my Painkiller
Painkiller
Now she's running through my veins
Painkiller

Ready?

I don't need you babe
I don't need the pain
My time is too precious
Taking it away

Take it away!

Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on!

Mama told me, babe, 'bout wild women like you
But I'm a wild man and I know just what to do

I found me a new love, she's better than cocaine
Gives me mad love, just like a pounding rain

She's my,
She is my,
She is my,
My
Painkiller (x8)

She's my Painkiller
She's my Painkiller
Painkiller
Painkiller
My Painkiller
She's my Painkiller
