

Fast Girl

Teddy Geiger

You say it all
Maybe too much information
It's such that it means
Nothing, well

Boots to her thighs
I thought I was down
And disposable crowns
Of such sweet deception, yeah
Mama says
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me

Cue the intrigue
Cancel the bad
I got things on my mind
Anything needs attention

I'm weak at the thought
Don't speak, I'll get caught
Cause this ticket I bought
Only leads to questions, here

My mama says
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl

Cause I barely trust myself
And I know that speed can kill
Speed can kill
Mothers always know
Little boys wanna crash
Little boys wanna crash

That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast for me
She goes too fast for me
That girl
She goes too fast
