

I Pretend

Teddy Geiger

Take this seat beside me, an afternoon for writing
Their lighting like they do on movie screens
And i yell action you say,
He has got me sweating
And you start undressing
I don't really know which way to look
My eyes they find the window
I try to focus out the scene, its useless

I pretend
This ain't happening
But in my head
Oh its happening
In the end well both go wherever
I pretend
This was memorable
But I'll forget
My mind isn't able
In the end we'll both go wherever

So later I drink coffee
I'll try to get a picture
But I can't remember what you looked like
I try to focus on this scene, its useless

I pretend
This ain't happening
But in my head
Oh its happening
In the end well both go wherever
I pretend
This was memorable
But I'll forget
My mind isn't able
In the end we'll both go wherever

Is she real or a vision, its not clear
Oh I try to focus on the scene
It's useless

I pretend
This ain't happening
But in my head
Oh its happening
In the end well both go wherever
I pretend
This was memorable
But I'll forget
My mind isn't able
In the end we'll both go wherever
