Love Is A Marathon

Teddy Geiger

You love to run Into the arms Of anyone Take off your shoes and socks And stay awhile You like the adrenaline rush Just a little too much You go from day to day Hand to mouth And wonder why You're unsatisfied Chorus Cause love is a marathon That's why you get tired so fast of everyone Slow down and pace yourself Cause when it's good It's a long open road

You think still You'll find a soul behind a thrill You're just a cat chasing your tail Round and round What if you relax Something might last

You're exhausted always coming down Trying to come up for air Trying to act like you just don't care La da da, de da da
