

The night air breathes
But not so easy as before
Did you notice
Did you take the time to listen
To my breath or to my words
When I spoke
Explain my feelings and my reasons for the way I love you
I'm getting to the point

And I feel like I do
Even more now that I'm leaving
And I feel just like I do
When I'm with you

She's so sweet and
I'm leaving
Thinkin how I'm barely breathin'
Notice how your every look gives me tingles
And I wonder if your listening to what I'm thinking
We won't fade away

And I feel like I do
Even more now that I'm leaving
And I feel just like I do when I'm with you
And I feel like I do
Even more now that I'm leaving
I'm leaving you
So what am I to do

My feelings have not fallen away
You're my every thought here
Everything will go on it's own way
Everything is okay
We will try to make it
Everything will go

It's alright baby
It's alright baby
It's alright baby girl why don't you say
Feelings have not passed away
You're my every thought here
Everything will

And I feel like I do
Even more now that I'm leaving
And I feel just like I do when I'm with you
And I feel like I do
Even more now that I'm leaving
I'm leaving you
So what am I to do
