

The Only One

Teddy Geiger

What would I say if I could open my mouth
So much to say if I only knew how
If I could breathe and exhale just how I feel
I know that you're the only one

You're always quick to speak
What's happening inside
I'm always quick to keep it hidden
All of these feelings I have deep in my mind
I barely say I love you

There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't
There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't

So many people so many thoughts in our heads
So many things that go unsaid
But I gotta break the trend before it drives me insane
Cause I know that you're the only one

Well it's time to give up on all the hints and the clues
It's time to shout just what I'm thinking
I'm gonna take you through the distance inside
I'm letting you in this time

There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't
There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't

Oh but I don't, no I don't

I don't, no, no, no
I don't, no, no, no
I don't, no, no, no
I don't, no, no, no

There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't
There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't

There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't
There's so much I wanna say
Oh but I don't, no I don't

Oh but I don't, no I don't
No, no, no, no
