

You're Gone

Teddy Geiger

We were the only thing
I thought I really knew Goodnight. Well I guess this is the last,
I'm losing you
Too bad, so soon
I'll make it up to you
Like I always do

Oh, I'm gonna try
With all my might
To make it better

I, I come home
And you're gone
No I won't let go
Or give up
Without you I feel so alone
Please come home

I got your note
Complete with stinging syllables enclosed
Why so cold?
I didn't think you had that in your soul
Oh if that's you
I'll learn to love that too
Do what ever it takes

Oh, I'm gonna try
With all my might
To make it better

I, I come home
And you're gone
No I won't let go
Or give up
Without you I feel so alone
Please come home

And every night since you left
My heart's been filled with regret
Oh please come home
Oh please come home

I, I come home
And you're gone (and you're gone, yeah)
No I won't let go
Or give up
Without you, I feel so alone
Please come home

"They'll meet you and soon they'll forget you"
