

My Heart Echoes

Teddy Thompson

My heart echoes now that you're gone dear
My heart echoes with misery
All the times that I wasn't true, dear
My heart echoes it back to me

There's a emptiness tonight, there's a longing in my heart
For your tender loving smile and sweet caress
Oh if you could only see what you're leaving did to me
You would come back dear and fill this loneliness

My heart echoes now that you're gone dear
My heart echoes with misery
All the times that I wasn't true, dear
My heart echoes it back to me

Though we said that we were through
I'll be waiting here for you
As I have, dear, ever since we've been apart
I know dear that I was wrong, I can't go on
For you're always in the echo of my heart

My heart echoes now that you're gone dear
My heart echoes with misery
All the times that I wasn't true, dear
My heart echoes it back to me
