

You So Heavy

Teena Marie

Rescue me and my precious cargo
We have short time to be wed
White knights, with silver shadows
Have placed thoughts in my head
The King and I, In a mystery series

Much ado-about
Sheldon's romance-sweet novella
Passion crying out
Thoughts of you go to my head

You turn me on
Oh you so heavy
You turn me on
Oh you so heavy
Consider me, and my love ahoy
Sugarcoat me in your path

I'll surrender, I need a little sympathy
When there's no one you can trash
Call me I'm your pacifier
When you need some company

Sister can't fly ith one wing
So just give her what she needs
You make me feel like drifting
Through my golden years

Thoughts of you go to my head
You turn me on - Oh you do heave
You tailor-make me

And I'm dressed in secret fears
Thoughts of you go to my head
You turn me on - Oh you so heavy-heavy-heavy
