You So Heavy

Teena Marie

Rescue me and my precious cargo
We have short time to be wed
White knights, with silver shadows
Have placed thoughts in my head
The King and I, In a mystery series

Much ado-about Sheldon's romance-sweet novella Passion crying out Thoughts of you go to my head

You turn me on
Oh you so heavy
You turn me on
Oh you so heavy
Consider me, and my love ahoy
Sugarcoat me in your path

I'll surrender, I need a little sympathy When there's no one you can trash Call me I'm your pacifier When you need some company

Sister can't fly ith one wing So just give her what she needs You make me feel like drifting Through my golden years

Thoughts of you go to my head You turn me on - Oh you do heave You tailor-make me

And I'm dressed in secret fears
Thoughts of you go to my head
You turn me on - Oh you so heavy-heavy-heavy
