

Bitchface

Teenage Bottlerocket

Backwards when you look up like you're too good for me
Twisted when you prance around like your shit don't stink
Forward when you roll your eyes at me
Did you practice the bored look on your face like there's some place you'd rather be

Backwards when you look up like you're too good for me
Twisted when you prance around like your shit don't stink
Forward when you roll your eyes at me, and you know
Did you practice the bored look on your face like there's some
place you'd rather be

Rolling your eyes won't help you to prove you're better than ev eryone
Too busy sticking your nose in the air to ever have any fun
The first six times that I met you I knew you wouldn't remember
me
You wouldn't remember anyone you never wanted to meet.

And you oughta know ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
We are so ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
Over you and all your mean looks too
Condescending jokes and your bad mood oughta know
Your bad mood oughta know

Quick run and hide is what we cry when you come near.
Won't you pack your bags and leave far away from here
You're right to think that were ignoring you
I refuse to stick around, I refuse to be stuck up too.

Rolling your eyes won't help you to prove you're better than ev eryone
Too busy sticking your nose in the air to ever have any fun
The first six times that I met you I knew you wouldn't remember
me
You wouldn't remember anyone you never wanted to meet.

And you oughta know ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
We are so ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
Over you and all your mean looks too
Condescending jokes and your bad mood

Oughta know ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
We are so ooh whoa ooh whoa oh
Over you and all your mean looks too
Condescending jokes and your bad mood oughta know
And your bad mood oughta know
Your bad mood oughta know

Your bad mood oughta know
And your bad mood oughta know
