

Skate Or Die

Teenage Bottlerocket

We're gonna fight, we're gonna win.
We're making skate a fucking threat again.
We're on the prowl for something cool;
We're gonna shred your empty swimming pool.

We're doing slappys at the Circle K,
And I did gnarly boneless while my walkman blasted JFA.

Don't be a pussy, there's no need to cry,
So shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
Yeah, you don't even need to know the reason why,
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.

Go!

Mullen's my god, he brings me joy,
The second coming of skate and destroy.
Brian was brave, he hit a cop...
He won a trip down at the doughnut shop.

We're waging war against the posers of the day;
If we play our cards right, someday we might be in the Bones Brigade.

Don't be a pussy, there's no need to cry,
So shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
Yeah, you don't even need to know the reason why,
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.

(Shut up and get rad, it's time to skate or die.)
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
(Shut up and get rad, it's time to skate or die.)
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
(Shut up and get rad, it's time to skate or die.)
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
(Shut up and get rad, it's time to skate or die.)
Just shut up and get rad, 'cause now it's time to skate or die.
