

Live With The Seasons

Teenage Fanclub

Clouds in the sky
Reflecting the sea
They mirror my life
And they disappear

Breathing the air
Got nowhere to be
I get my life
From the atmosphere

I wander the earth
But now I've come back here
To live with the seasons
And to be with you

I've pondered the worth
Of our life's of this sphere
But I don't need reasons
When I'm here with you

Distracted by life
Don't know what to be
But infinite feelings
Never disappear

Rain on my face
Pulled up from the sea
There's an ocean of meaning
And a lovers tear

The wind and snow and rain
Make me feel you

I wander the earth
But now I've come back here
To live with the seasons
And to be with you

I've pondered the worth
Of our life's of this sphere
But I don't need reasons
When I'm here with you

I'll live without reasons
When I'm here with you
