

Everything

Telecast

No matter what this day will bring
I will left my hands and sing
O Be My Everything.

I'll make my life and offering
In you alone I will believe
O Be My Everything.
My Everything.

When the world comes crashing down around my feet
And I can't see 10 feet in front of me.
Jesus I know that you are strong when I am weak
So please Help Me
Allow you to be
My Everything.

No matter what this day will bring
I will left my hands and sing
O Be My Everything.

I'll make my life and offering
In you alone I will believe
O Be My Everything.
My Everything.

And there are times when
It seems as though you're far away
But I will hope in you
For this is the day you have made.
And thank you Jesus for this blessed gift
Of you grace
For helping me to see
My need for you to be
My Everything.

No matter what this day will bring
I will left my hands and sing
O Be My Everything.

I'll make my life and offering
In you alone I will believe
O Be My Everything.

No matter what this day will bring
I will left my hands and sing
O Be My Everything.

I'll make my life and offering
In you alone I will believe
O Be My Everything.
O Be My Everything.
O Be My Everything.
My Everything.
