

Fade Into You

Telecast

You are the Hope on which all purpose hangs
I'm holding onto You
You are the Light that will never fade
I'm fading in to You

Take me, I'm Yours
Jesus, You bought me with Your blood
Use me, I'm Yours
You're the only One I'm thinking of

'Cause I've been born again
You transformed my heart and entered in
Yes, I've been born again
I'll fade out and You fade in...to me

Been on the edge of the darkest days
But then You called my name
I found Your love on the Calvary road
I'll never be the same

Take me, I'm Yours
Jesus, You bought me with Your blood
Use me, I'm Yours
You're the only One I'm thinking of

'Cause I've been born again
You transformed my heart and entered in
Yes, I've been born again
I'll fade out and You fade in

Yes I'll fade in, yes I'll fade in...to You

'Cause I've been born again
You transformed my heart and entered in
Yes, I've been born again
I'll fade out and You fade in

Yes I'll fade in, yes I'll fade in...to You
