

Into Everything

Télépopmusik

Open your world
Into everything

Subtle ripples forming closer
Touching me, I can't escape
Foolishly I think I'm stronger
Then a kiss, now it's too late

Open your world
Into everything

Fully ripened I am falling
Into your hands, For you to taste
Like a child, my eyes are open
Ambushed by your pretty face

Open your world
Into everything
Open your world
Into everything

Is it possible to love you
Or will this soon, be washed away
By a single drop of water
In the desert I will lay

Open your world
Into everything
Open your world
Into everything
Open your world
Into everything
