

The Man Who Paints The Rainbows

Television Personalities

Even when the sky is grey
The sun will have the final say
So take another look outside
And when you think you've seen it all
And when you think you've lost it all
Just take another look outside
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who makes the stars glow
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who paints the sunshine yellow
So take a trip out to the sea
Or to the singing ringing tree
But take another look outside
You're satisfied with who you are You're satisfied with what you are
Take another look outside
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who makes the stars glow
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who made the sunshine yellow
No, no, no
No, no, no
No, no, no
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who makes the stars glow
I'm not the man who paints the rainbows
I'm not the man who made the sunshine yellow
