

Truth Is

Ten After Two

You stole the last known faith in me
Truth is the masquerade won't hide the lies you speak
So take and dispose of my dreams
You're just the hurricane that pulled me through the seams

Take and dispose of all my dreams
All of the memories they sing
Sing back to me
Another melody so discouraging
I've been given infinite reason to believe that you're not what you seem
I need to step away
Rethink everything
And I know there's no excuse to be sorry so I'm not Just know there's nothing right to lie
You're out of your fucking mind

I will never trust you
I'm done

You stole the last known faith in me
Truth is the masquerade won't hide the lies you speak
So take and dispose of my dreams
You're just the hurricane that pulled me through the seams

I'll be nothing to you
But you're latest regret
I'll make sure you regret
You'll be dead in the water
I'll be nothing to you
You'll be dead, you'll be dead in the water
You'll be dead in the water
I'll be nothing to you
You'll be dead
