

Feel My Love

Ten Sharp

I never knew lonely and now I know you from my heart
You give me reason
You don't even know me and you rushed into my life
So easily

Do you know that place between sleep and awake
where you remember all your dreams
That's where I'll always love you
That's where I'll always watch you
Hoping that one day

So many nights
I've been waiting for your smile
So beautiful
I slide into darkness and you stand in the light
Like an angel

Do you know that place between sleep and awake
where you remember all your dreams
That's where I'll always love you
That's where I'll always watch you Hoping one day you'll

Feel my love
Like the rain that wets your skin
Like a sail that hits the wind
Feel my love
Like the wind that climbs the trees
Like the smell of summerbreeze
I feel you

If you can listen just listen to my heart
So silently
I'm cold and I'm lonely guess I'll wait another while The pain of letting go...
