

When the Snow Falls

Ten Sharp

Snow is falling down, just like it always did World is all in white, there seems no difference at all

Crazy globe of ours, she has another face
What is white a change, it's like an endless dream Nothing can disturb, the come and going (going)

Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter of dreams
Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter fo dreams
Takin' it down

World is all in white, there semes no difference
What is white a change, it's just like endless peace

Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter of dreams
Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter fo dreams
Takin' it down

Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter of dreams
Yes it's wrong, to think it's gone
and it's all a matter fo dreams
