

Who Needs Women

Ten Sharp

She's free in her mind
She's got pride and a fire in her eyes
Ooh she knows
Strange, how she looks
She seems a million miles away
Ooh, she knows what she wants
Yes she does

She's up
She's down
And awake like almost every night
Ooh and I just wait

Eyes open wide
Loving arms in the morning light
And she smiles a lot
And she cries

Who needs women
She'll only take your heart away
Who needs women
She'll leave no place to break away
Break away

She takes my time
And she always
Always steals my thoughts
Oh I'm a romantic fool

Eyes open wide
Loving arms in the morning light
And she talks a lot
And she lies

Who needs women
She'll only take your heart away
Who needs women
She'll leave no place to break away
Break away

Who needs women

Eyes open wide
Loving arms in the morning light
And she talks a lot
And she lies

Who needs women
She'll only take your heart away
Who needs women
She'll leave no place to break away
Break away

Who needs women

Who needs women
