

Angry Words

Ten Years After

Angry words and empty silence you on your side, me on mine lying here in total darkness that old cold spot marks the line we've turn our backs on each other feels we wasted so much time I didn't mean to hurt you some things are better left unsaid I can't sleep
I can't stop thinking it's going round-n-round my head If I only stopped to listen we'd be making love instead [SOLO]
Angry words and empty silence
lying here in total darkness
that old cold spot marks the line
