Bad Scene

Ten Years After

You ruin my day
You ruin my night
You ruin everything I do
You're killing in my way
You're killing in my life
You're killing in everything I do

You're hurting my heart
You're hurting my pride
You're hurting everything I own
You're choking my head
It's choking inside
Why don't you leave my life alone

I just want to do it like it used to be
So, why don't you leave it up to me
I want to tell you if you think it's right
Baby, won't you do it right?
