

Stoned Woman

Ten Years After

She gonna love him
Stoned out of mind all the time
She gonna keep him
Stoned out of his mind all the time
She don't see nothing
She just has loving
And she keeps on puffing all the time
I keep on praying
She'll just have a flash
She'll hear what I'm saying all the time
Well, she's a stoned woman
Baby, it's true
Well, she's a stoned woman
Baby, baby, baby
I don't know really, what to do, yeah
She gonna love him
Stoned out of mind all the time
She gonna keep him
Stoned out of his mind all the time
She don't see nothing
She just has loving
And she keeps on puffing all the time
All the time
I keep on praying
She'll just have a flash
She'll hear what I'm saying all the time
All the time, all the time, all the time
