

Woman Trouble

Ten Years After

Woman trouble always in my life
Got a babe, but she'll never be my wife
'Cause I know, yes, I know
When she got you, man, you're never letting go

You see her in the street with the sparkling eyes
Don't forget that she knows how to cry
'Cause you know, yes, I know
When she got you, man, you're never letting go

She says, baby, that we'll never fight
I know I'm gonna treat you right
You won't be lonely, this I know
There's a time when women have got to go

Woman trouble always on my mind
My kind of woman I'll never find
'Cause I know, yes, I know
When she got you, man, you'll never let go

Woman trouble always in my life
Got a babe, but she'll never be my wife
'Cause I know, yes, I know
When they got you, man, they're never letting go
