

I was walking through a life unseen,
Like a ghost, you never noticed me,
Hey baby, it tears me up inside,
I was drowning in an endless sea,
Now I'm shipwrecked on the rock of grief,
But hey baby, I'm bruised but I'm alive, oh yeah

You never listened hard enough to what I'd got to say
Ever distant, far enough away to stop a Plague

True, I'm invisible to you these days,
Now I've lost your lovin' arms
I'm living in your cage,
True, I'm invisible and cast away,
Since I crossed your fickle heart
I'm nothin'

It's like I'm shifting through a restless dream,
Just a shadow of the man I've been,
Hey baby, it's heavy on my mind,
Maybe time-out is a thing I need,
Your disdain cut through the skin of me,
Hey baby, why treat me so unkind?

You never listened hard enough to what I'd got to say
Ever distant, far enough away to stop a Plague

True, I'm invisible to you these days,
Now I've lost your lovin' arms
I'm living in your cage,
True, I'm invisible and cast away,
Since I crossed your fickle heart
I'm nothin'

Give me something
Worth living for....
