

Oblivion

Ten

I don't wanna lose you,
I can't let you slip away.
Knowin' how I feel about you,
Still so much to say, and I
Wanna find you peace of mind,
Make it stronger every day,
Sanctify emotionally,
And bring the colours back to grey.

Let's say past is past and don't look back,
Girl, I've thought the whole thing through,
I won't run and hide, I won't tell lies,
Gotta start the whole thing new.
Change my selfish side and roll back time
To the love that we once knew.
Girl, it's gonna be rough, child,
It's gonna be tough, child,
But I will pull you through...

Done my time in oblivion.
You and I, we were prisoners.
Whatever you want now, baby,
whatever you need,
Isn't it time
You and I climbed
Back to this life,
From oblivion...

Lady, If I used you,
I'm so sorry, I'm ashamed,
If I ever bruised you
In emotional ways, and I
Wanna leave it all behind,
Wanna turn another page,
Cherish every moment with you,
Treasure every day.

Let's say past is past and don't look back,
Girl, I've thought the whole thing through,
I won't run and hide, I won't tell lies,
Gotta start the whole thing new.
Change my selfish side and roll back time
To the love that we once knew.
Girl, it's gonna be rough, child,
It's gonna be tough, child,
But I will pull you through...

Done my time in oblivion.
You and I, we were prisoners.
Whatever you want now, baby,
whatever you need,
Isn't it time
You and I climbed
Back to this life,
From oblivion...

Baby, won't you choose to love me?

Don't you be afraid.
If I ever see you cry.
I'll wipe the tears away, and I
Know that there are things in life
That time cannot erase,
But the touch of love can heal,
Those scars will start to fade,

Let's say past is past and don't look back,
Girl, I've thought the whole thing through,
I won't run and hide, I won't tell lies,
Gotta start the whole thing new.
Change my selfish side and roll back time
To the love that we once knew.
Girl, it's gonna be rough, child,
It's gonna be tough, child,
But I will pull you through...

Done my time in oblivion.
You and I, we were prisoners.
Whatever you want now, baby,
whatever you need,
Isn't it time
You and I climbed
Back to this life,
Back to the light,
Somewhere in time,
Lovers entwined,
Two of a kind,
From oblivion...
