

The Wave

Ten

There's time in life, forever girl,
For trails we have to face
There's so much to remember girl,
But nothing can replace
Your loving arms around me girl,
With nothing but the stars to light the way...

Your fire ignites the ember girl,
Desire is ours to taste
Inspired by our endeavours girl,
So timeless, our embrace
Will stay with me forever girl,
I'll hold you in my heart
And "Seize the day"...

Slowly
We run,
Slowly
We hide,
Slowly
We come,
Slowly
To life,
Slowly
We crawl beyond the grave,
Far beyond forgiven,
For the tide is ours
Yet echoes haunt the wave

This life goes on whatever girl
Then dies without a trace,
But in my heart you'll always be
The love I can't replace,
So dry your eyes forever girl,
For nothing that we had will fade away...

Slowly
We run,
Slowly
We hide,
Slowly
We come,
Slowly
To life,
Slowly
We crawl beyond the grave,
Far beyond forgiven,
For the tide is ours
Yet echoes haunt the wave
