

Thunder in Heaven

Ten

Just like a dream with a nightmare inside
Cruel, calculating and cold
Scene after scene, the deeper you fall
Drawn by the bell as it tolls

Cybernetic immortal
Technological gold
Psychological portals
Only she can control

Endless ravine with a mountain to climb
Look to the vision she holds
Killer and queen rolled into one
Assassination enclosed

Cybernetic immortal
Technological gold
Psychological portals
Only she can control

Come to me
Explore your tortuous role
Come to me
I am your ultimate fantasy goal
(come to me)
Your wildest dream I unfold
Can' t you see?
I give you the earth but the price is your soul

She's like a stream with the rapids to ride
Priceless precision in code
Perfect machine, goddess of love
Pure holographics to clone

Cybernetic immortal
Technological gold
Psychological portals
Only she can control

Come to me
Explore your tortuous role
Come to me
I am your ultimate fantasy goal
(come to me)
Your wildest dream I unfold
Can' t you see?
I give you the earth but the price is your soul

He steps off the edge, fire in his eyes
Hands reaching out as she tenderly sighs
"closer" she says, arms open wide
Slave to her will and the ebb of the tide
Blown by the wind mind and soul
He can' t contain her; she' s out of control
Just as the black widow bites
I feel the thunder in heaven tonight

The taste of revenge flesh on her lips
Bittersweet poison the venomous kiss
Passion and lace thinly disguise
Truth of intent in those perilous eyes
Time for the kill madness flows
She stands above him in seconds he knows
Just as the still Mantis strikes
I hear the thunder in heaven tonight
