

No don't leave alone like this Balanced on the edge of a precipice
Empty hearted soul in the great abyss
Life takes hold of a knife and twists
Judas is the night at a time like this Callously unveiling the final kiss

Timeless inferno
Like the flames and acid rain of mortal sin
Timeless eternal
as the pain that carves it's name upon my skin

All cried out and raw inside
I lie awake at night and wonder why
Someone tore the miracle from my life
What I wouldn't give to turn back time
Knowing I should never have left your side
Haunting me forever until I die

Timeless inferno
Like the flames and acid rain of mortal sin
Timeless eternal
as the pain that carves it's name upon my skin
