

Yesterday Lies In the Flames

Ten

What can I do
I get insane without you near
How can I sleep
Without you here

You touch me in a way
That words cannot explain
But how it feels
Is more than real

I never knew
That it could be this way with you
Making me whole
Feeding my soul

And nothing can deface
The temples we embrace
Until the dawn
We journey on

I am on fire tonight
Yesterday lies in the flames
Burning with emotion we rise
On this pure tonight
Yesterday dies in the flames
We watch our destiny rise from the flames

If I can choose
This love will never be abused
Always be near
Warm and sincere

I'll never let you know
The pain of what it means
To be alone
I need you so

Day after day
None of the energy decays
Nothing to fear
Everything's clear

The frequencies of love
To give receiving of Becoming one
It has begun

I am on fire tonight
Yesterday lies in the flames
Burning with emotion we rise
On this pure tonight
Yesterday dies in the flames
As like a phoenix we rise from the flames

I am on fire tonight
Yesterday lies in the flames
Burning with emotion we rise

On this pure tonight
Yesterday dies in the flames
As like a phoenix we rise from the flames
