Why did you ever leave today?
No you've been miles away
You took chance leaving after stands
You can play me on your circumstances
You set up on a simple life
Meant to be home on be forgot

Now you see that
Oh is not as you seem
You fade, you can't believe

Then I glimpse you as you lied in here
Consciously..near
And I can't be sure if you can hear me
Now you can rest a time indeed
Took a way and rest a wings

No you dream, oh perfectly dreams
You love me to believe

Simple shells upon the wrist
If love..that has no hand
So smile you seem within my hand
You got the strength to leave again

Still have the strength but you carry on
And now it's gone

Simple shells upon the wrist
If love..that has no hand
So smile you seem within my hand
You got the strength to leave again

Uhh
