

Rain

Terence Trent D'Arby

Take off your topcoat
Put on your raincoat
Give up your birthright
And don't you cry
'Cause in 23 verses now
A storm is a-comin'
And you'll be too surprised
To wonder why.
And it will
Rain rain
Go away, go away
Rain rain
Come back again another day.
Step out your cool suit
Snap on your wet boots
And now eat all your mushrooms
Until you see
That in 22 verses now
A storm in a-brewin'
And you'll be too annoyed
For victory.
'Cause it will
Rain rain
Go away go away
Rain rain
Come back again another day.

China glass &
A chocolate bar
I'm leaving behind
So my children's children
Children's children
Will see what's left of me.
Cue up the James Brown
And jack up the funky sound now
Say it won't be the last time
You hear a scream
'Cause in 21 verses now
A storm is a-ragin'
And you will satisfy your destiny.
'Cause it will
Rain rain
Go away, go away
Rain rain
Come back again another day.
