Rain

Terence Trent D'Arby

Take off your topcoat Put on your raincoat Give up your birthright And don't you cry 'Cause in 23 verses now A storm is a-comin' And you'll be too surprised To wonder why. And it will Rain rain Go away, go away Rain rain Come back again another day. Step out your cool suit Snap on your wet boots And now eat all your mushrooms Until you see That in 22 verses now A storm in a-brewin' And you'll be too annoyed For victory. 'Cause it will Rain rain Go away go away Rain rain Come back again another day. China glass & A chocolate bar I'm leaving behind So my children's children Children's children Will see what's left of me. Cue up the James Brown And jack up the funky sound now Say it won't be the last time You hear a scream 'Cause in 21 verses now A storm is a-ragin' And you will satisfy your destiny. 'Cause it will Rain rain Go away, go away Rain rain Come back again another day.
