

Shoot It Again

Teresa Brewer

(Shoot, shoot, shoot it again)

I just lost my sweetie
Now I'm feeling mighty blue
Little Danny Cupid
All the fault belongs to you

When you shot your arrows
I got hit right in my heart
But you missed my love
And we're apart

(CHORUS)

You gotta shoot, shoot, shoot it again
Shoot that arrow again
You gotta keep on trying and then
Shoot, shoot, shoot it again

Every time he held me
How the chills ran up my spine
Every night he'd tell me that
His heart was truly mine

Now he's gone and left me
Danny Cupid, you're to blame
Get your bow and arrows
Take your aim

(CHORUS)

Even though I lost him, Cupid
You can bring him back
How can he resist you
When you start your love attack

Wedding bells will ring
We'll have a cottage just for two
Danny boy, it all depends on you

(CHORUS)

(Shoot, shoot)
Shoot it again)
