

Rockstar

Terminal Choice

You try to change the world
With all your stupid words
Shut up! Shut up!
You don't really have
What you say to us
But you need to be a star

You have the girls and the sex
And the drugs and the money
You're a fucking rockstar
You have the the girls and the sex
And the drugs and the glamour
You're a fucking rockstar

We give you all our money
Take it from us
We want to be like you
Show us your style
We want to look like you
Show us your style
You're a product of our dreams
Never give up

Play for me
Cause you're a fucking rockstar
