

Sons Of Doom (Remix)

Terminal Choice

Das Licht das doppelt so hell brennt Brennt eben nur halb so lange Du hast für kurze Zeit unglaublich hell gebrannt.

believe me my friend
our time has come
now we are here
to speed our seeds

nothing will be like it ever was nothing will stay
everything will change

and we are fighting
for a better world
and we are killing
all the enemies tonight

and we are fighting
for a better world
and we are killing

and we are fighting
for a better world
and we are killing

you had your chance
you didn't take it
you poisoned the world
but we will clean it

you are the source of filth your blood will flow don't try to fight against us we are the sons of doom

for a better world
and we are killing

and we are fighting
for a better world
and we are killing

and we are fighting
for a better world
and we are killing
