

You're the One

Terrace Martin

I'm looking at your pretty face
Smiling from across the room
Baby here I know your name
Making for the number we'll talk soon
You gotta say this right, girl
And if you don't call on the first night
I can't control where my heart goes
Eyes closed but I see your sweet spirit though There's no rush, I wanna take my time you're the one

You're the one, you're the one
Baby you're the one I want
You can have my love, have my love
Baby you can't have it all girl
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
Yeah yeah.

A little time's passed
And I really wanna make you last
So tell me what I gotta do,
I wanna be the one for you
Baby you can relax, naughty thoughts going through your head as you Maybach just give me the hand and hold don't tattoo me girl if you let me love you, baby we could share rooms so what you think of that, all truth know gang like that all you gotta do is say yes, all you gotta do is say yes.

You're the one, you're the one
Baby you're the one I want
You can have my love, have my love
Baby you can't have it all girl
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
Yeah yeah.

Mhmh, boy just take your time, don't rush
If you in the hurry I don't fuss
I will show you everything my tongue, my fire the songs I sing
To lead all..
I can give you all of my love and hate
Just show me you're special, don't run the games on me
I'll run away with you and you can have everything, yeah

You're the one, you're the one
Baby you're the one I want
You can have my love, have my love
Baby you can't have it all girl
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one, you're the one

Yeah yeah.

Na na na na na...

I give you my heart but don't don't come easily

Come on show me baby, yeah

You're the one, you're the one, you're the one, you're the one.
