

Getting There

Terri Clark

Well, the sun sets in the west
But as fast as you go how would you know
You're a busy boy, I guess
Who just wants the gold at the end of the road

Think of all you miss
Passin' through like this

You want an answer as soon as you say a prayer
You want to land the moment you're in the air
Baby, the livin' is all in the gettin' there

Don't be the first in every line
Now and then you can be at the end
'Cause there's only so much time
And you can't get back every minute you spend
You're not even sure what you're runnin' for

You want an answer as soon as you say a prayer
You want to land the moment you're in the air
Baby, the livin' is all in the gettin' there

Think of all you miss
Passin' through like this

You want an answer as soon as you say a prayer
You want to land the moment you're in the air
Baby, the livin' is all in the gettin' there

The livin' is all in the gettin' there

Gettin' there...
