

If You Want Fire

Terri Clark

I got this dream I've been dreamin'
The perfect picture of love
Sparks and fireworks flyin', almost too hot to touch
Then everything I wanted and then some Suddenly walked in the room
I said I needed different but maybe I spoke to soon

It's every kind of crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin between my head & my heart
But if you gotta have it all that madness and passion
Then you'll learn
Ooo, you'll learn
If you want fire
It better be worth the burn

We're either laughin or cryin
Flyin high or runnin away
But in between the thunder & lightning
There's always another day
Another day

It's every kind of crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin 'tween my head & my heart
But if you gotta have it all that madness and passion
Then you'll learn
Ooo, you'll learn
If you want fire
It better be worth the burn

Sometimes it feels all or nothin
Sometimes it's nothin at all
But in between those moments it's magic
That softens the fall

It's every kind of crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin between my head & my heart
But if you gotta have it all that madness and passion
Then you'll learn
Ooo, you'll learn
If you want fire
It better be worth the burn

If you want fire
It better be worth the burn
