I've got an ice-cold cup of coffee And a paper I haven't read A canyon in my heart And a hammer in my head And a waitress with an empty stare That looks right through me I'm sitting at a table And I'm balancing the salt Weighing out my choices Baby, It's nobodys fault And I'm torn up by these voices Talking to me You say there's no good reason For me to walk away You say there's so much good between us Who wouldn't want to stay But how can I be with you If deep down I believe I'll loose a part of me

Sometimes goodbye is the only open door
I can't turn back when I know there's something more
I gotta find what my heart beats for

I've got a half a page of reasons And a napkin full of tears From trying to pull my spirit Through the pocket of my fears As the lunch croud emptys out Into the city And there may not be a way for me To make you understand I'll write down the words I'm feeling And I'll leave it in your hands But the memories of our love I'm taking with me You say there's no good reason For me to walk away You say we're meant to be together And I'm making a mistake But this emptiness inside me Has brought me to this road and I have to let you go

Sometimes goodbye is the only open door I can't turn back when I know there's something more I gotta find what my heart beats for

For the passion everlasting
For deepest dream
For a chance to love like that
There is no in between

Sometimes goodbye is the only open door
I can't turn back when I know there's something more
I gotta find what my heart beats for
