

Wrecking Ball

Terri Clark

Ten tons desire ten tons of passion
Pickin' up steam 2 souls crashin'
No wasted wishes, thrown away kisses
I've got a job to do

Rubble and dust, smoke and flames
A glorious mess, wild and untamed
When I take aim, and set my heart on you

I'm a wreckin' ball
A woman on a mission, pure demolition
Bustin' right through that wall
No sense in runnin', you won't see it comin'
But it feels so good when you fall
I'm wreckin' ball

It's a sweet kind of damage, a good kind of broken
Knockin' that locked up door wide open
You'll be smiling knowing I'll swing back through

I'm a wreckin' ball
A woman on a mission, pure demolition
Bustin' right through that wall
No sense in runnin', you won't see it comin'
But it feels so good when you fall
I'm wreckin' ball

No holding me back, no slowing me down
When I want what I want and I want it right now
On a cast iron chain, headed your way
You'll know I ain't messin' around

Cuz I'm a wreckin' ball
A woman on a mission, pure demolition
Bustin' right through that wall
No sense in runnin', you won't see it comin'

I'm a wreckin' ball
But it feels so good when you fall
I'm wreckin' ball
Runnin' on passion, comin' right at ya
And it feels so good when you fall
I'm a wreckin' ball
A wreckin' ball
