

Always the Hard Way

Terror

Self raised, self made
Nothing was ever handed to me
I tasted pain, the gutter hugged me
Til I stood up and embraced the flame

Always pushing, always searching
Always crossing the line
Try to hold me back
I swing the hammer of inner strenght

Always, always, always the hard way
Nothing, nothing, nothing was ever handed to me
Always, always, always the hard way
You faught me truth, you gave me strenght
I learned everything the hard way

Helpless and crisis
Without them you never know better days
Unsound, selfbound
Cause you never had to fight for anything

Always pushing, always searching
Always crossing the line
Try to hold me back
I swing the hammer of inner strenght

Always, always, always the hard way
Nothing, nothing, nothing was ever handed to me
Always, always, always the hard way
You faught me truth, you gave me strenght
I learned everything the hard way

Always the hard way
Always the hard way
Always the hard way
ALWAYS THE HARD WAY

..the hard way
I learnded everything
..the hard way
I learnded everything
..the hard way
Nothing was ever handed to me
..the hard way
