

Both Of You

Terror

I've done my best, my best to prove
That I never needed you
Since that day you threw me away
I haven't asked you for a thing
I found the road to forget those times
To never return, and leave it all behind
I am the product of so much rage
I can't escape what you made me

I am the bastard son
Loved by no one
You both threw me away
This distance is killing me

Went south to start your new life
I was just a boy, how could you leave me behind?
Those early days you were my everything
So now I trust no one, keep them away from me

I am the bastard son
Loved by no one
You both threw me away
This distance is killing me

I've got your name
I've got your blood
But I don't have
Your fucking love
