

Deep Rooted

Terror

Late nights at the speed of my life
This is how it was meant for me
Deep roots
Deep rooted
Deep rooted
Deep, deep roots
There has never been another plan for me
No one else has ever understood my pain
For 41 years—I still remain
Still screaming what I heard in '89
The rebirth of hardcore pride
Deep roots
Deep rooted
Deep rooted
Deep, deep roots
There has never been another plan for me
Some drift away, grow up, and change
But this is where I wanna be
A better man I know I have been
One promise I can keep
Frustration every day
I will not fall
I won't run away
You showed me a better way
A place to breathe where I can feel
Deep roots
Late nights at the speed of my life
There has never been another plan for me
