

Put the Bone In

Terry Jacks

Put the bone in she asked him at the store
Because my doggie's been hit by a car
And I do want to bring him home something
Put the bone in, she begged him once more.

The meat from the pork is sweet.
Give the bone from the pork meat to me.
Put the bone in she begged in as she paced around the floor
Put the bone in she yelled out once more.

Put the bone in she asked him at the store.
'Cause my doggie's been hit by a car.
And I do want to bring him home something.
Put the bone in she begged him once more.
